Before launching a career as a life coach and reiki master Karin Kristensen, born in 1963 in Copenhagen, Denmark, studied chemistry and worked for many years in the computer industry.

She worked with Beckman Instruments as a product specialist and marketing manager for 4 years, specializing in capillary electrophoresis. In this capacity she gave many lectures, held workshops and worked together with both national and international scientists.

When she joined the computer industry she spent 4 years teaching Microsoft programs as well as HTML to thousands of Danish business people with excellent results. Later she specialized in the business potential of the Internet working as a consultant for 2 years and eventually went on to work as a project manager, still in the computer industry.

Feeling the need of incorporating the spiritual side into her professional experience she has trained as a reiki master, past lives therapist and life coach. Through workshops, lectures and individual counselling she now helps people to succeed in their business lives by succeeding in their personal lives.
